

Friday 3 May 2013:

Three Gibby's Field Related Events

Two creeks, Gibson Creek and Davey Creek, met at Gibby's Field, which took its name from Moses Gibson (1850–1937), a local landowner and farmer. Gibby's Field is at 1454/1458/1462 East 18th Avenue, in the dip between Knight and Dumfries.

Gibby's Field was chosen as one of 125 Vancouver sites to receive a historical plaque as part of the Vancouver Heritage Foundation's "Places That Matter" project.

Three events take place Friday 3 May 2013 to mark installation of the plaque. All welcome.

2pm: Plaque dedication at Gibby's Field.

3pm: Reception at Tye Elementary School, 3525 Dumfries Street, at same time as Tye's annual plant sale (3pm–8pm).

4pm: Walking tour of Gibson Creek and Davey Creek (60–75 minutes), starting and ending at Tye.

See www.vcn.bc.ca/gibbys/plaque.htm for details.