OCTOBER 22, 2003 PD SEMINAR
 FOURTEENTH PM PROFESSIONAL DAY
 REGISTER NOW!

The Fourteenth PM Professional Day has been set for October 22, 2003 at the Holiday Inn Metrotown. Register now with Sheila Krenz stkrenz@shaw.ca if you plan to attend the seminar.

PMP's further the profession by enhancing their backgrounds and depth of experience with new personal development opportunities and by pursuing better formal or informal education and training.

Program: A full day of presentations and interactive workshop sessions devoted to Project Management Training, Education, and Development.

Our agenda for the day will include these presentations and workshop sessions:

Fundamentals of Training Design and Development. Rob Clark, PMP.
 Developing training in project management using the Instructional Systems Design model. The presentation will also cover instructional techniques and a learner-centered approach to designing training, which accommodates different learning styles.

Integrating and Measuring Earned Value: A PMO perspective.
 Susan Mogan, PMP. This workshop engages the group in answering the question of how program management offices should teach an organization to understand and use earned value performance measurement. The questions addressed will include how to ensure that all project teams understand what earned value is, how to facilitate its integration within an organization, and how to measure it.

Project Manager for the event, Ray Parent, PMP, is seeking additional PMP presenters, workshop leaders, and discussion facilitators to complete the program. Specific topics in which we would like you to share your experience include:

- Project Management Training and Education
- Identifying PM Competencies

- Career Development for PMs

Please contact Ray Parent, PMP, at rayparent@shaw.ca to volunteer and score some PDUs.

FINAL 2003 PD DAY PLANNED
FOR NOVEMBER 26

*****

The minimum goal of the Society is to hold three Professional Development Seminars in each calendar year. This allows a Vancouver area PMP to meet the re-certification requirements from this source of PDUs alone.

In 2002 we held five, full-day seminars and have planned to do so again in 2003. Every PMP is a candidate presenter, facilitator, or committee member. A seminar will proceed only if a volunteer Project Manager for the event steps forward. You have the opportunity to pick the theme and topic.

The final Professional Development Seminar for 2003 will be held on November 26, 2003 This will also be the date of the Annual Meeting of the Society

The Society is based on the principle that we learn from each other, and each of us has valuable experience to share or facilitation skills to contribute. Volunteers should contact Walter Wawruck wawruck@intouch.bc.ca

Seminar participants can claim seven PDUs for the day. We now have confirmation from PMI on the PDUs that presenters, facilitators, and the PM can claim, in addition to the time they spend as participants.

PMP CERTIFICATION NEWS

US$75 Recertification Fee in 2004

~~~~~

PMI has announced that there will be a fee for PMP re-certification, starting in the new year, of US$75 for PMI members ($150 for non-members)

You can apply for re-certification as soon as you have accumulated 60 PDUs. You do not have to wait until the end of your three-year cycle. You may be able to save the fee by applying for re-certification before year-end 2003 if you qualify.

ABOUT THE SOCIETY - WEBSITE ADDRESS

The Society of PM Professionals is a voluntary, democratic organization of PMP@s in the Greater Vancouver area, who are dedicated to the achievement of their common purposes in the profession through mutual support, co-operation, and collective effort.

There are approximately 250 PMP@s in the Vancouver area who receive notices of Society events.

The Society holds at least three Professional Development Seminars in Vancouver each year.

The Professional Development Seminars feature technical presentations and workshop facilitation by PMP@s for the purpose of continuing professional development. The seminar is intended for PMP@s. However, a PMP@ may invite guests who are committed to the advancement of the Profession. Practitioners who plan to become certified as PMP@s are welcome in particular.
